Scholarships are awarded to qualifying College Bound students for full-time STEM study--science, technology, engineering or math-- at accredited four-year colleges or universities. Bryant-Taylor Scholarships are for four years for tuition, living, and college-related expenses.

Congratulations
College Bound
28th Annual End of Year Celebration

May 16, 2019

As Mayor of Washington, DC, it is my pleasure to extend congratulations to the participants of College Bound, on the occasion of your 28th Annual End of Year Celebration.

College Bound was founded in 1991, and since its inception, has successfully helped thousands of students across the Washington, DC metropolitan region prepare for and gain acceptance to colleges and universities throughout the nation. Through vigorous initiatives, students who participate in the College Bound program yield a 100% high school graduation rate.

This event highlights the accomplishments of the Academic Mentoring Program participants, community partners, volunteers, and community leaders, in addition to the award of scholarships to the students.

On behalf of the residents Washington, DC, I commend College Bound for making college a reality for all of our students and you have my best wishes for an enjoyable and memorable event.

Dear Mr. Ward,

I am pleased to offer my congratulations to you and College Bound on its 28th Annual End of the Year Celebration. Your organization has been instrumental in helping DC youth achieve their dreams and goals and has been a positive force throughout the city.

Thank you for your commitment to education and for supporting so many young people in DC with your guidance and encouragement. Through the years, College Bound has equipped so many scholars with the essential tools to achieve their future endeavors. I wish you many more years of continued success. Have a wonderful celebration.

Sincerely,

CONGRATULATIONS!
COLLEGE BOUND, INC.
28TH ANNUAL YEAR END CELEBRATION

As former Mayor of the District of Columbia, and current Ward 7 Councilmember, I am honored to congratulate College Bound, Inc. on your 28th Annual Year-end Celebration! Providing 28 years of exceptional leadership and ensuring underserved students obtain a college education is admirable. Moreover, I commend College Bound Inc., on the theme for this year's celebration which is one familiar, yet powerful word, "Believe."

I will continue to be an advocate for organizations such as College Bound Inc. because of your steadfast commitment and significant outcomes your staff has been able to achieve each year. In fact, I was honored and delighted to recently serve as your dinner speaker at the University Club where such a large number of students and parents were in attendance.

I wish you much success as you continue to ensure underserved students have access to higher education. Again, congratulations on 28 years of exceptional leadership and commitment to improving the quality of life for DC public and public charter school students.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Ward,

I am honored to recognize College Bound on the occasion of its 28th Annual End of the Year Celebration. As Chairperson of the D.C. Council Committee on Education, I share your goal of ensuring that educational success is accessible to all students in the District of Columbia.

For the past 28 years, College Bound has provided exceptional service to D.C.'s traditional and public charter school students by equipping participants with academic enrichment and resources to thrive in college. I especially want to acknowledge the outstanding work of your Academic Mentoring Program. The participants, community partners, leaders, and volunteers have made this program a success which is reflected in its 100 percent high school graduation and college acceptance rate.

I am deeply appreciative of College Bound's significant impact in the community, and I wish your organization a wonderful 28th Annual End of the Year Celebration and continued success in the future.

Sincerely,

College Bound Inc., End of the Year Celebration

As councilmember of Ward 5, I congratulate and celebrate with you on your 28th year of strengthening, encouraging, and preparing students in the Washington metropolitan area who pursue a college education.

I commend the participants of College Bound's Academic Mentoring Program. I applaud this year's class on working towards achieving a 100% graduation rate and the preparing your members to receive acceptance letters from the college of their choice. Because of your belief in young people, you have awarded scholarships to many worthy students.

College Bound's continued efforts to affect change in the lives of youth through mentorship and volunteering has been invaluable, especially for the future trajectory of our city. It is my hope that you will take a moment to reflect on all that you have accomplished over the last 28 years with a sense of pride and joy. You have instilled a commitment to excellence, diligence, and integrity in the lives of so many young people.

I appreciate the opportunity to celebrate this philanthropic organization. May the staff and participants of College Bound Inc. continue to flourish in all future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Councilmember Kenyan R. McDuffie

Congratulations College Bound!

May 16, 2019

Guests, Family & Friends:

I am delighted to congratulate the College Bound participants at this 28th Annual End of Year Celebration.

For nearly three decades, College Bound has helped students advance to higher education. This should be a priority for all young people in the District. College Bound's commitment to preparing students in the Washington region for higher education makes a big difference – not just in the community, but for our youth. I also want to recognize College Bound for utilizing new technologies to support District alumni as they pursue higher education. All of the partners, volunteers, and community leaders who have been a part of this are vital to long-term support for our young people.

This year's End of Year Celebration is focused on the word 'Believe.' I encourage you to take to heart the words of Hall of Fame football coach Bear Bryant – "If you believe in yourself and have dedication and pride and never quit, you'll be a winner. The price of victory is high, but so are the rewards." I look forward to seeing the students of College Bound win in life and I wish all of you continued success!

Sincerely,

Commemorating The College Bound End of the Year Celebration

May 16, 2019

On behalf of the residents of Ward 4, I am delighted to share greetings with the attendees of the 28th Annual College Bound End of the Year Celebration. Thanks to you and your hard work, 100% of the participants in the College Bound program have been accepted to college. These young men and women will go on to do amazing things and continue to further their education thanks to the Academic Mentoring Program, along with community partners, volunteers, and community leaders.

To all members and supporters of the College Bound, thank you for your commitment to a strong education for our young people. Your support makes a true difference in our community, and all of Ward 4 and the District is grateful for your contributions. I hope you have a lovely evening at this year's Gala! Please know that in me, you will always have a friend on the Council of the District of Columbia.

Respectfully yours,

April 29, 2019

Dear College Bound:

As an At-Large Member of the Council of the District of Columbia, it is my honor to congratulate the board of directors and staff on celebrating your 28th Annual End of Year Celebration.

Since 1991, many of the District's youth have benefitted from free tutoring, mentoring, ACT/SAT preparation, and academic and career guidance to aide in their efforts to obtain a post-secondary education. The entire city appreciates College Bound's focus on providing greater service and investment in our youth. With the resources and support you provide, our youth continue to reach their highest potential by achieving their personal and professional goals.

Thank you for the stability that you provide to our youth and for the many contributions each and every one of you have made across the city. Congratulations on reaching this anniversary.

Sincerely,

Board Chair, Board of Directors

Welcome to the 28th Annual College Bound End of Year Celebration! I am elated to serve as Board Chair and in keeping with the theme of this evening's celebration, I have the honor of inviting you to Believe, in College Bound and the work we do for local public and charter high school students but more importantly in the promising future that lies ahead for our bright and hardworking students. Tonight we are here to celebrate yet another successful year for our students and acknowledge all of those who helped to make this success possible. I am excited to share in this wonderful celebration with the parents, mentors, staff, board members and everyone who have made it possible for our amazing students to excel.

College Bound is fortunate to have the ability to reach students across D.C. at seven academic mentoring sites. This year, we honor PNC Bank for their partnership with College Bound. In addition to financial support, PNC hosts one of our seven academic mentoring sites weekly at its corporate headquarters downtown Washington, D.C. Each Thursday, students meet with their mentors to complete assignments, exchange ideas, and share what has happened in their lives. PNC staff is also committed to this partnership as they show up weekly to provide financial literacy lessons for the College Bound students. For the unwavering support that PNC has shown, we are pleased to present them with the 2019 College Bound Hall of Fame Award.

Each year we also celebrate an individual who has gone above and beyond in service to our community, a person who is a shining example of the path that we encourage our students to follow. This year, we celebrate County Executive Angela Alsobrooks. As a graduate from Banneker Academic High School, she knows firsthand the challenges and opportunities that exist locally. After completing Banneker, she studied at Duke University and completed her law degree at the University of Maryland. After a number of successful positions, Ms. Alsobrooks has ascended to the position of County Executive in Prince Georges County, the first woman to ever hold that office. Ms. Alsobrooks clearly demonstrates that when you believe in yourself and your ability to succeed you can achieve all things. Her success clearly models the importance of education and she serves as a model for all of our students. We proudly present the 2019 College Bound Community Leadership Award to Ms. Angela Alsobrooks.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, we are extremely proud of our graduating seniors and know that continued success is in their future. We thank all of you for your enthusiastic support of our programs and students and encourage you to continue to support College Bound as we make college completion a reality for our students.

Sincerely,
Archie L. Rich II, Esq.

Kenneth A. Ward

Executive Director

Thank you so much for joining us this evening as we celebrate 28 years of making college completion a reality. Our theme tonight is BELIEVE. I find that believing is incredibly important as our society seemingly rewards and celebrates the worst behaviors. As reality tv stars, hatemongers, ideologues, and a host of other unsavory characters loom large and quite often serve as idols, educational pursuits can easily be discounted if not totally abandoned. So, I continue to ask our students to BELIEVE. Believe - not in something nor necessarily someone, but in themselves. With this as a core guiding principle, they will be prepared for the uncertainty and challenges that will unfold as they pursue their college education and ultimate life goals.

I remain deeply thankful to the mentors that give unselfishly to help students BELIEVE and see that life may be hard, but it is also full of opportunities. These professionals show up for our students, not only at the academic mentoring sites weekly but also at extracurricular events and monthly outings. They listen, advocate, and help inspire our students to keep fighting and winning.

This year has allowed me to reflect on the myriad of opportunities and successes that my decade as Executive Director at College Bound has brought forth. From launching a Virtual Mentoring Program to expanding the scholarship program, I am forever grateful for those individuals and groups that have supported my vision without wavering. The fact that they believed in me and supported me in these endeavors has allowed the organization to have a greater impact and provide students with resources and supports to help ensure their success in college and life. BELIEVE.

In February, I was humbled to be awarded a Lifetime Achievement Award from Mentor, the national mentoring organization. This recognition reminded me that although I don't do this work for recognition nor fame, that when you work hard, persevere, and never stop BELIEVING, your work and efforts aren't in vain. I hope that through my efforts, I will continue to inspire students to BELIEVE in themselves and their ability to live bold lives. I also believe that YOU will do what you can to help me in this vein, anything else would be unconscionable. Thank you again for your support and helping to create a counter-narrative in which our students can BELIEVE.

In service and gratitude,

Kenneth

College Bound's Hall of Fame Award is presented to an individual or entity that has significantly supported and furthered the mission of College Bound. The 2019 Hall of Fame Award is presented to PNC Bank that has been unwavering in its support to College Bound. At PNC, employees bring diversity and inclusion goals to life through Employee Business Resources Groups (EBRG). EBRGs are unique groups composed mostly of employees who share a common dimension of diversity, such as gender, sexual orientation, heritage or military service, among others.

These groups welcome all PNC employees in an effort to share their backgrounds and experiences with one another. EBRGs offer participants opportunities to network, communicate, and progress personally and professionally. Members also work closely with senior executives to implement business opportunities they have identified and initiatives recommended by their groups.

Prior to launching a site at PNC corporate headquarters, downtown Washington, DC, members of the African American Business Resources Group had supported College Bound by serving on the organization's board of directors and mentoring in the Academic Mentoring Program. At the PNC site, our partnership with the African American Business Resources Group has blossomed and dedicated members provide our students and mentors with weekly financial literacy classes. These presentations run the gamut of financial literacy topics with the ultimate goal of helping individuals make better financial decisions.

College Bound salutes PNC for its critical financial support to our programming and its employees dedication to help ensure that our students are tooled with the to knowledge to live better lives.

It is our distinct honor to award PNC the 2019 Hall of Fame Award for their growing commitment to the College Bound program.

Angela Alsobrooks

Community Leadership Award Recipient

A proud, life-long Prince Georgian, Angela, knew from an early age that she wanted to give back to the community that raised her and give a voice to those who might not otherwise have one.

After graduating from the University of Maryland Law School, Angela began her career as a Prince George's County Assistant State's Attorney in 1997, eventually becoming the county's first full-time prosecutor assigned to handle domestic violence cases. She tried and successfully prosecuted scores of cases against violent offenders.

In 2002, Angela was appointed by the County Executive to serve as Education Liaison, where she organized educational forums to help increase parental involvement in schools and environmental based learning opportunities. In 2003, she was appointed the Executive Director of the County's Revenue Authority. Under her leadership, the agency increased revenue by 40% through their parking enforcement program and some of those funds were used to help the county maintain a balanced budget during the recession.

In 2010, overcoming a two-percent name recognition against a field of candidates who had all run for public office previously, Angela, by an overwhelming margin, was elected to serve as the County's State's Attorney, becoming the youngest and first woman to be elected to the office in Prince George's County.

As the State's Attorney, she led a staff of 100 attorneys and 110 professional administrative staff responsible for prosecuting people accused of committing crimes. As the County's top law enforcement official, Angela played a key role in public safety and strived to carry out her responsibilities in a firm, fair and consistent manner. She increased the office's budget by 40% and successfully fought for additional resources to ensure the office could appropriately support the needs of the community.

A hallmark of Angela's approach as State's Attorney was to engage the community to prevent further crime. She created a truancy reduction initiative that works with schools to keep kids on the right path as well as started a program called Back on Track – Prince George's, aimed at giving low-level, non-violent offenders a second chance in the community. Alsobrooks and her office played a major role in the record crime reduction the county has seen over the last several years and the 50% reduction in violent crime over the last seven.

In November 2018, Angela was elected as the 8th County Executive for Prince George's County and the first woman to hold the position. Alsobrooks' administration is committed to providing a world-class education system, safe communities and a robust economy that creates jobs and opportunities for all and increases the commercial tax base to ensure residents are provided with the services they deserve.

Angela is a member of the First Baptist Church of Glenarden and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. and is involved in the effort to raise breast cancer awareness in her community. Angela resides in Upper Marlboro with her daughter, Alex.

We are pleased to present the 2019 Community Leadership Award to Ms. Angela Alsobrooks.

Special Guests

Alumni Speaker, Waliyah Johnson

College Bound alumnae and scholarship recipient, Waliyah Johnson was enrolled in College Bound for three years at the Cesar Chavez site. As a sophomore at the University of Rochester, she is double majoring in African American studies and anthropology with a minor in journalism. Waliyah currently serves as the Minority Student Affairs Liaison for Student Government and on three executive boards: Rochester Business Association, Black Students' Union, Women's Leadership Alliance. After completion of her undergraduate studies, she plans to attend law school to reach her goal of becoming a corporate attorney. Aside from academics Waliyah started a non profit organization, Perfection Takes Time. Perfection Takes Time helps students from low economic backgrounds develop academically, professionally and financially through mentorship and community service. This summer Ms. Johnson will be interning at Phone2Action as a Senior Fellow who oversees the fellowship program along with the operations department. Waliyah was College Bound's 2018 Juliette Tyler Lewis Civic Award recipient.

Mikayla

We are so very proud of you!
Continue to shine in everything you do.... the sky is the limit!

Love you always,
Mom and Dad

A celebratory graphic for Mikayla. It features a large portrait of her on the left. To the right, her name 'Mikayla' is written in a purple script font. Below the name is a message of pride: 'We are so very proud of you! Continue to shine in everything you do.... the sky is the limit!' followed by 'Love you always, Mom and Dad'. At the bottom right, there is a smaller photo of Mikayla smiling with her mother.
